Comments on Learning Objectives:
The topics were exactly what I needed to know. While all info was valuable to me, I appreciated how Prof Burnett tried hard also to collect from us our questions and concerns, and respond to them in terms that made sense to us. I felt truly encouraged and liberated to use the computer, digital devices, and internet with so much more confidence and knowledge.

I am also taking his website development class. This is for the second time - previously with another instructor. I find this time around I feel so much more aware and confident based on what I've learned from this literacy class.
