III. 1   What did you like about the class?

very beginner level informative with a lot of great statistical information
The instructor was highly engaging during each session. He provided the web design/development basic foundation that I was looking to get out of the class.
A comprehensive introduction for web and mobile design. Was able to set up a functional web site to suit our needs.
Mr. Burnett provides a very complete explanation of the content and give the student a better understanding how to create the professional web.
