III. 1 What did you like about the class?

It was interesting
Even though it was a lot in a very little amount of time, I felt as though it was covered thoroughly.
Instructor very engaging and helpful
Mr.Carl is nice and the coding is good for beginner.
I was completely new to HTML and was able to not only keep up, but understand and build a webpage. Excellent professor and great students.
Applied daily what we learned in exercises.
Good starting point for website design.
The material, patience of teacher.
Asks for lots of participation
The professor is dynamic and personable. The content is reasonable for the time allotted.

III. 2 What didn't you like about the class?

Kind of short
I wish we had more time
n/a
none

At my age the pace was at times too fast.
Some of the class couldn't keep up with the lesson plan.
3 hours in the evening after work is a long block.

III. 3 What improvements would you suggest?

Maybe more sessions, or more time to work on the projects.
none
n/a noe
would be great to be able to practice some of the stuff we learned at home and since I did not have dreamweaver I was not able to practice at home as much as I would have wanted.
It was overall a good class.
More days and less students
Different book - book had every page was duplicated on the next page with the figures.

III. 4 What other classes would you like to see offered?

N/a n/a
HTML 5 all levels.
More introductory classes like this on coding would be great.

I'm not sure
LESS and SASS, Drupal, PHP with Drupal, Drupal themeing
