III. 1 What did you like about the class?

Learning new technology to creative responsive sites. Learning different available frameworks.
building my own website
I liked being able to see everyone's websites at the end of class.
The hands on experience really helps.
the instructor was very knowledgeable and willing to help students
The opportunity to design and develop a responsive web site.
You ended with a feeling of accomplishment.
Excellent instructor. Prof Burnett answered all questions and spent a lot of one on one time helping students.

III. 2 What didn't you like about the class?

Only got to use one framework, but it helped me practice my coding which was good.
nothing
I wish I had been able to try a different framework. But will practice on my own now!
I would like to have more guidance and more time.
n/a
We should have had more uniform help on the frameworks. Some basic hints would have helped us take off on our own better.
Too much material for the time allotted.

III. 3 What improvements would you suggest?

Go around to all students throughout class and get more involved in each person's project.
more time
Expand the class over more days.

have an actual demo or exercise to build a RWD site in class
Add an extra day of instruction. If the course is longer, then more time can be spent on the class project.

III. 4   What other classes would you like to see offered?

jquery but i think they offer that already jquery
